

Marketing Policy

From time to time UTN and the associated AFI group of companies, brands and affiliates (collectively “AFI”) will inform you of offers, services and promotions. AFI has a policy of not selling to or providing third parties with any data relating to and including AFI marketing lists.

By clicking Submit on any of our online forms you are agreeing to AFI holding your details for AFI marketing purposes including by post, email, SMS and sales telephone calls.

If for any reason you would like to be removed from our marketing lists at any stage, you can easily and quickly opt-out by emailing your contact details, including name, address, email and telephone number to optout@afi-group.co.uk or by calling 01924 234 819. In addition you can change your preferences or update your details by clicking on the links at the bottom of any promotional email you receive.

AFI’s sales and marketing team will then exclude you from further communication. Please allow 28 days for your contact details to be removed and any ‘in progress’ activity to be completed/delivered.

We take data protection very seriously and we will ensure that your data is kept safe and confidential. If you need to speak to us regarding our data protection policies please email marketing@afi-group.co.uk.